

Dear Preferred Traveler:

Fall is right around the corner, and that means an opportunity for you to join fellow members and guests of the Historical Society of Dauphin County on another exciting bus trip. Make your reservation now for October 13, 2011, when you'll journey to Doylestown, PA., to visit the Mercer Mile (including Fonthill, former home of Henry Mercer, and the Mercer Museum) and the Pearl S. Buck House.

We will board our 29-passenger bus at the Weis Markets at 1195 Lowther Street, Camp Hill, at 7:00 am and leave the parking lot at 7:15 am.

The first stop will be Fonthill, arriving at 9:45 am for a 10:00 am hour-long tour. Then we will board the bus again for a short mile-long jaunt to the Mercer Museum. Lunch will be in the Elkins Gallery at the Mercer Museum, followed by orientation and a self-guided exploration of the Mercer Museum.

We leave Mercer approximately 1:15 pm, arriving at the Pearl S. Buck House shortly before 2:00 for our guided tour there.

The cost of the trip, including lunch, is $117.00 for members and $129.00 for non-members.

Non-members may take advantage of a special offer of an annual HSDC membership and this bus trip for $159.00 – a savings of $5.00. HSDC members receive a 10% discount on gift shop and photo archive purchases and bus trips, a free tour of the Harris-Cameron Mansion, and a copy of our annual publication, the Susquehanna Journal.

Group size is limited to 28, so make your reservations early. To register, call or email HSDC at 233-3462 or office@dauphincountyhistory.org to reserve a place, then complete the form below and return it with payment by September 22nd to Historical Society of Dauphin County, 219 S. Front St., Harrisburg, PA 17104.
