

Dear Preferred Traveler:

Spring is on its way, and that means another opportunity for you to join fellow members and guests of the Historical Society of Dauphin County on an exciting bus trip. Make your reservation now for Thursday, May 17, 2012, when you'll journey to Bedford Springs, PA. and the Flight 93 Memorial. We will board our bus at the Weis Markets at 1195 Lowther Street, Camp Hill, at 7:45 am and leave the parking lot at 8:00 am.

The first stop will be the Bedford Springs Resort, where we will have a tour of the historic hotel from 10:30 to 11:30 am, followed by a half-hour of free time to shop or wander the grounds.

Lunch will be served at the hotel from 12:00 noon to 1:00 pm.

We leave Bedford Springs approximately 1:00 pm, traveling to the Flight 93 Memorial site. Our tour at the Memorial will be from 2:00 to 3:30 pm., leaving at 3:30 for our return to the Weis Markets' parking lot.

The cost of the trip, including lunch, is $117 for members and $129 for non-members.

Non-members may take advantage of a special offer of an annual HSDC membership and this bus trip for $142.00 – a savings of $10.00. HSDC members receive a 10% discount on gift shop and photo archive purchases and bus trips, unlimited free tours of the Harris-Cameron Mansion, and use of the Research Library.

We expect this trip to be a sell-out, even though we must use a larger bus than usual, so please make your reservations early. To register, call or email HSDC at 233-3462 or office@dauphincountyhistory.org to reserve a place, then complete the form below and return it with payment by May 2nd to Historical Society of Dauphin County, 219 S. Front St., Harrisburg, PA 17104.
